

OFFICER SEBASTIAN RUBIRA - Board of Advisors for Spain

Officer Sebastian Rubira served in the Army in the Military & Communication /Logistics Department. He joined the Catalan Police (Mossos d'Esquadra) in 1995. He became a specialist in Scientific Police in 1998, where he currently works. Officer Rubira is also a certified Director of Security by the School of Prevention and Integral Security at Autonomous University of Barcelona.

In 2011 he expanded his career by working at the Catalan Police Cybercrime Unit as expert in cybercrime. Officer Rubira received a special training in cybercrime by HOMELAND SECURITY INVESTIGATIONS HSI-USA Computer Forensics and Covert Internet Investigations In 2012. He has been a professor of Scientific Police and Forensic Photography at the Catalan Institute of Public Security (Police Academy).

He received a police award in 2001 for his project of introducing digital photography in the Catalan Police. Officer Rubira received another police award in 2013 for his career with special acknowledgment for solving a violent robbery case of an old lady and the sexual assault of a minor. This year (2016) he received another police award for his community work in the prevention of cyberbullying, sexting and cyberstalking.